O R D E R

This matter is before the Court on the parties' Joint Motion for Approval of Confidential Settlement Agreement. [Dkt. 29.]

Plaintiff Poonam Baxla ("Plaintiff") brought suit against Shahzad Chaudhri and Asma Chaudhri ("Defendants") under, inter alia, the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA") for failing to pay Plaintiff the minimum wage. The parties now propose a confidential settlement whereby Defendants will pay Plaintiff damages. Settlement Agreement [Dkt. 30], ¶ 1.

"[T]he rights guaranteed by the FLSA cannot be waived by private agreement between employer and employee," and FLSA cases may only "be settled when the settlement is supervised by the [Department of Labor] or a court." Taylor v. Progress Energy,

Inc., 415 F.3d 364, 374 (4th Cir. 2005), vacated on other grounds 493 F.3d 454 (4th Cir. 2007). Courts consider a number of factors in evaluating whether to approve a proposed FLSA settlement, including: "(1) the extent of discovery that has taken place; (2) the stage of the proceedings, including the complexity, expense[,], and likely duration of the litigation; (3) the absence of fraud or collusion in the settlement; (4) the experience of counsel who have represented the plaintiffs; (5) the probability of plaintiffs' success on the merits[;] and [(6)] the amount of the settlement in relation to the potential recovery." Baber v. Cnty. of Frederick, No. 5:12CV037, 2013 WL 3788615, at *1 (W.D. Va. July 19, 2013).

Having reviewed the record in this case and the parties' Joint Motion, it is hereby ORDERED that:

(1) WHEREAS the parties have engaged in and largely completed discovery, enabling them to assess the merits of their claims and defenses through settlement negotiations; and

(2) WHEREAS the proposed settlement would serve to curtail legal fees that may grow out of proportion to the recovery sought; and

(3) WHEREAS the proposed settlement appears to have been negotiated without fraud or collusion by the Parties' respective counsel; and

(4) WHEREAS Plaintiff's counsel appears to have ample experience with FLSA claims; and

(5) WHEREAS taking into account the costs and risks associated with this litigation, see Quintanilla v. A & R Demolition Inc., No. CIV.A. H-04-1965, 2008 WL 9410399, at *5 (S.D. Tex. May 7, 2008), the Court cannot say that the merits of Plaintiff's case are such that the settlement proposed is unfair; and

(6) WHEREAS in light of the above, the Court finds that the proposed settlement is "a fair and reasonable res[o]lution of a bona fide dispute over FLSA provisions." Lynn's Food Stores, Inc. v. United States, 679 F.2d 1350, 1355 (11th Cir. 1982).

The parties' Motion [Dkt. 29] is GRANTED and the proposed settlement is APPROVED.

It is also HEREBY ORDERED that:

(7) The Clerk of the Court shall forward copies of this Order to all counsel of record.

It is so ORDERED.
